“ • Being at IACA has broadened my understanding of the subject of corruption and its negative effects on economies worldwide. The IMACC program has also given me an opportunity to interact with other students and understand the diverse methods employed in curbing corruption in other countries across the globe. Further, the IMACC program has been insightful and increased my depth of knowledge of the negative effects of corruption. In addition, I have learnt how to identify red flags to possible corrupt activities by actors in both the public and private sectors. The tremendous effort made by IACA staff in ensuring continued learning inspite of the COVID-19 pandemic cannot go without mention. It has been a great honour to be part of this journey thus far! I look forward to contributing to the fight against corruption.

IMACC 2020 – 2021

“ Being part of IACA was a dream coming true. It is a unique experience where I had the opportunity to have a solid learning structure in a multicultural environment focused on fighting against corruption. It is incredible how the institution got prepared for conducting a hundred percent online course with such strong academic and technical support that makes you feel part of the campus even far from it. Highly qualified teachers promote reflections and activities that enable students to continuously understand corruption phenomena and the global challenges to fight against it. It is a rigorous, inspiring, enriching program that made me feel more empowered in my professional career.

IMACC 2019 – 2021 student

“ It is already two modules into the IMACC and it is such a wonderful experience being a part of the IMACC 2019 class, which is a diverse group of international students coming from across five continents. Students include professionals with work experience from both the public and private sector. Everyone shares from the different experiences during the inclass modules; this diverse varsity pool of experience plays into the in-class debates, and it has helped me conceptualize and comprehend the different subject matters better. The academic team comprises of enthusiastic professors and lecturers who are industry professionals with varsity experience on anti-corruption compliance and collective action. Lecture room delivery allows for in depth correlation of the different theories with practical cases and trends in the fight against corruption from across geographies. It is enjoyable and though my work life is quite fast paced, the IMACC programme has allowed me flexibility to do lots of personal reading and research on the study topics as part of the pre-module and post-module assignments. I am excited and already applying the knowledge acquired from IMACC thus far, as I continue serving my clients.
