PUBLIC REPORT

ON

THE FAILURE OF 188 LEADERS WHO FAILED TO SUBMIT ANNUAL RETURNS FOR 2007

19 August 2009

REPUBLIC OF VANUATU

80061/2009/01

PUBLIC REPORT
ON
THE FAILURE OF 188 LEADERS
WHO FAILED TO FILE ANNUAL RETURNS FOR 2007

PREAMBLE

"The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light; let us walk honestly, as in the daylight, not in rioting and darkness".
(Epistle to the Romans 13 v 12, 13)

We are mandated by the Constitution, the Ombudsman Act No.27 of 1998 and the Leadership Code Act No.2 of 1998 to report on the unlawful and unethical actions and/or omissions which were deliberately undertaken by leaders in their failures to file their 2007 annual returns pursuant to sections 31, 32 and 33 of the Leadership Code Act. As such, in the event of instigating legal proceedings the "ignorance of the law shall be no defence to any criminal charge" as per section 11 of the Penal Code [CAP 135].

SUMMARY

In 2007 a leader in official positions under Article 67 of the Constitution and section 5 of the Leadership Code Act is legally required under section 31(2)(a)(b) to give the Clerk of Parliament his/her 2007 annual return (a) within 2 months of becoming a leader; and/or (b) by 1 March in each year (2008). Having received the annual return forms from the leaders, the Clerk of Parliament is obliged under section 32(3) of the Leadership Code Act to publish "in the Gazette on or before 14 March in each year a list of the leaders who have given or failed to give the Clerk an annual return. The list must set out the leader's name and the position the leader holds".

On 28 March 2008 an Ombudsman Officer requested Mrs Tountano Bakokoto from the State Law Office to confirm whether or not her Office had already received the lists of those leaders who have not only file but also those who failed to fill and submit their 2007 Annual Returns. She confirmed to the Officer that the State Law Office had not yet received those lists to be officially published in the Official Gazette.

From then onwards, the Ombudsman's Officer has been following up through phone calls on the matter with both the State Law Office and Parliament House up until the lists of those leaders were published in the Official Gazette No.33 dated 16 June 2008. One hundred ninety nine (199) leaders were listed as having filed their 2007 Annual Returns (APPENDIX C) and one hundred ninety one (191) leaders were listed as those who failed to submit their 2007 Annual Returns (APPENDIX D).

Upon carrying an investigation into the matter, the Ombudsman has instructed each leader (APPENDIX I) to explain the reason for which he/she has miserably failed to provide the Clerk of Parliament with an annual return form for 2007 by way of three means: a letter and statement/questionnaire and Police Witness statement (APPENDICES G, H).

Below are some of the Ombudsman's findings and recommendations after due enquiry into the failure of 191 leaders to file an annual return in 2007:

- ❖ Out of 191 names being published only 35 of them managed to provide their responses – that which out of that number there were three (3) persons who did not fall under section 5 of the Leadership Code Act. Thus, only 32 leaders provided an explanation or an excuse as to why he/she did not comply with section 31 of the Leadership Code Act. As such, it can be deduced that only 188 leaders have or may have breached section 33 of the Leadership Code Act.
- ❖ The Clerk of Parliament Mr Lino Bulekuli dit Sacsac [Mr Sacsac] has or may have breached section 32(3) of the Leadership Code Act.

In relation to the above findings, the Ombudsman recommends, amongst other things, that:

- ❖ The 188 leaders who failed to submit their 2007 annual return be prosecuted forthwith;
- ❖ The Clerk of Parliament Mr Sacsac be prosecuted under Part 6 of the Leadership Code Act ; and
- ❖ Sections 32 and 33 of the Leadership Code Act be amended accordingly.

1. JURISDICTION

- 1.1 The Constitution, the Ombudsman Act and the Leadership Code Act allow the Ombudsman to look into the conduct of government, related bodies, and Leaders. This includes the failure of leaders to observe and comply with section 31 to 33 of the Leadership Code Act. The Ombudsman can also look into defects in laws or administrative practices, including the failure of the Clerk of Parliament Mr Sacsac in his non-compliance with section 32 of the same Act.

2. PURPOSE, SCOPE OF INVESTIGATION AND METHODS USED

- 2.1 The purpose of this report is to present the Ombudsman's findings as required by the Constitution, the Ombudsman Act and the Leadership Code Act.
- 2.2 The scope of this investigation is to establish the facts about the failure of 191 leaders whose names were published in the Government Official Gazette dated 16 June 2008.
- 2.3 This Public Report will also look into the failure of the Clerk of Parliament in by-passing section 32 of the Leadership Code Act.
- 2.4 This Office collects information and documents by informal request, summons, letters, interviews and research.

3. RELEVANT LAWS

- 3.1 Relevant parts of the following laws as referred to in this report are reproduced in Appendix A.

The Constitution of the Republic of Vanuatu

The Ombudsman Act No.27 of 1998

The Leadership Code Act No.2 of 1998

4. OUTLINE OF EVENTS

- 4.1 For the purpose of Chapter 10 of the Constitution of the Republic of Vanuatu on the Leadership Code, Article 67 of the same defines those who are to be considered leaders in Vanuatu. Pursuant to Article 66 of the Constitution, any person defined as a leader in Article 67 has a duty to conduct himself in such a way, both in his public and private life, so as not to –

- (a) place himself in a position in which he has or could have a conflict of interest or in which the fair exercise of his public or official duties might be compromised;
- (b) demean his office or position;
- (c) allow his integrity to be called into question; or
- (d) endanger or diminish respect for and confidence in the integrity of the Government of the Republic of Vanuatu (APPENDIX A).

In addition to the aforesaid Articles, section 5 of the Leadership Code Act 1998 further declares those who are considered to be leaders exercising power and authority in various governmental institutions and statutory bodies throughout the country (APPENDIX A).

- 4.2 On 28 March 2007 an Ombudsman Officer responsible to compile the 2007 Annual Returns report made a phone call to the State Law Office requesting Mrs Tountano Bakokoto to confirm whether or not her Office had already received the lists of those leaders who have not only file but also those who failed to fill and submit their 2007 Annual Returns. She confirmed to the Officer that the State Law Office had not yet received those lists to be officially published in the Official Gazette.

Another call was also made to Parliament House in order to discuss the matter with the Clerk of Parliament Mr Sacsac but he could not be reached for comment.

As such, an email was sent to the Ombudsman at the Headquarter to brief him of the prevailing situation on the leaders' annual returns for 2007 (APPENDIX B).

- 4.3 From then onwards, the Ombudsman's Officer has been following up through phone calls on the matter with both the State Law Office and Parliament House up until the lists of those leaders who have filed and those who have failed to submit their 2007 Annual Returns were published in the Official Gazette No.33 dated 16 June 2008. 199 leaders were listed as having filed their 2007 Annual Returns (APPENDIX C) and 191 leaders were listed as those who failed to submit their 2007 Annual Returns (APPENDIX D).

Despite making numerous phone calls, the Clerk of Parliament could not be reached for explanation and clarification as to the long delay involved in submitting the lists to the State Law Office.

- 4.4 On 25 June 2008 the Ombudsman sent a letter to the Clerk of Parliament requesting him to provide a copy of the warning letter being sent to the leaders who have failed to submit their 2007 Annual Returns by 1 March 2008 – that is between 1 March to 14 March of each year. Section 33 of the Leadership Code Act clearly provides that:

A leader who (a) does not file an annual return as required by section 31, and after having been warned by the Clerk in writing of his failure to do so, fails to file the return within a further 14 days is guilty of a breach of this Code.

- 4.5 On 11 September 2008 the Clerk of Parliament responded to the Ombudsman's letters dated 7 July 2008 and 8 September 2008 (APPENDIX E) stating that "No we did not give any warning to those leaders who failed to file their 2007 Annual Returns, but only sent them reminders to that effect" (APPENDIX F).

5. RESPONSES BY THOSE WITH FINDINGS AGAINST THEM

- 5.1 As a result of the publication of the names of one hundred ninety one (191) leaders (Refer to page 16 of APPENDIX D) as compiled by the Clerk of Parliament in the Official Gazette No.33 dated 16 June 2008 for the failure in submitting their 2007 Annual Returns, the Ombudsman issued a working paper. Such a confidential report was meant to give the individual leaders mentioned therein an opportunity to explain the reason(s) behind such a failure through a letter, a statement/questionnaire (APPENDIX G) and Police Witness Statement (APPENDIX H).

Prior to going further into analysing the outcome of the investigation it is to be mentioned herein that there is a mistake in the numbering on the list due to a duplication of number 43 on page 4 of the APPENDIX D and another duplication of the name of Mr Michael Kalworai as both the Secretary General of the Shefa Provincial Council with number 166 on page 14 and Member of the Education Selection Board with number 98 on page 9. Thus, the numbering on the list increases and decreases by one respectively according to the said mistakes. As such, a total of 191 names as registered on the list (APPENDIX D) by the Clerk of Parliament remains intact.

While making submissions of their responses some of the leaders, without understanding the given instruction (APPENDIX I Copy of letter dated 27 April 2009), could only submit either a letter or a statement/questionnaire or Police Statement of Witness instead of the three documents altogether. Some of the leaders paid courtesy visit to the Ombudsman Office without submitting any of the documents but were interviewed by an officer instead.

5.2 Upon analysing the documentary responses and interviews of the leaders providing an explanation as to the failure of filing an annual return in 2007, this Office has come to divide them into three (3) groupings:

- (a) The leaders who recognized themselves as responsible persons in the light of the legal provisions that imposed this duty of filing an annual return during the course of the year and as such, provided an explanation or an excuse as to why their 2007 annual return forms could not possibly reached the Clerk of Parliament (i) within two (2) months of becoming a leader in 2007; and (ii) by 1st March 2008. The documents to be returned to the Ombudsman for an explanation "or excuse" can be classified in the following categories due to similarities (J1, J2, J3, J4, J5 and J6).and can be seen in the table below. It has to be mentioned herein that in the APPENDIX J as enclosed at the back of the report it is possible to figure out the names of those leaders who attempted to provide the Ombudsman with a reason or excuse for not making a submission of an annual return form for 2007 (J1, J2, J3, J4, J5 and J6).
- (b) The receipt of confirmation from those persons who were and are not to be considered as leaders in 2007 pursuant to section 5 of the Leadership Code Act (J6).
- (c) The leaders, who categorically ignored their legal duties as outlined above, did not bother to respond to the Ombudsman's queries (J7).

| J | |

| Please refer to APPENDIX J as enclosed at the back of the report in order to figure out the names of those leaders being mentioned in the appropriate rows as per their reasons for non-submission of their annual returns and in bracket the dates of receipt for such responses. | |
| REASONS "OR EXCUSES" FOR FAILURE | |
| J1 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Ignorance of his/her duties as enshrined in the Leadership Code Act, thus he/she did not comply with the legal provisions by filing 2007 annual return. |
| J2 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Submission of statements without explaining the reason(s) for which he/she did not file any form before 1st March 2008. |

| J4 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Did not receive the form and as such, he/she did not submit it. It is a legal obligation being imposed on a particular leader to file or submit an annual return each year and as such, it is also an obligation on the part of the leader to procure himself or herself with a form either from the Clerk or from the municipal and provincial headquarters for submission.. |
| J5 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Confusion |
| J6 | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Confirmation not to have been a leader in 2007. |
| J7 | Did not respond to the Ombudsman's queries due to negligence or illness being conducive to death. Indeed, there are one hundred fifty six (156) who refuse to answer questions relevant to the matter being enquired into by the Ombudsman. The Ombudsman would consider such negligence or refusal to provide sufficient excuse as outright breaches of sections 31 and 33 of the Leadership Code Act and section 49 of the Ombudsman Act. |

- 5.3 Upon making an analysis of the information and documents in possession, this Office only received thirty five (35) responses and out of that number there were three (3) persons who did not fall under section 5 of the Leadership Code Act. Thus, only thirty two (32) responsible leaders provided an explanation or an excuse as to why he/she did not comply with section 31 of the Leadership Code Act No.2 of 1998. As such, it can be deduced that only one hundred eighty eight (188) leaders breached the said legal provision of the Leadership Code Act. Out of that number there are one hundred fifty six (156) leaders who did not respond to the Ombudsman's queries (J7) – that which can be seen as a breach of section 49 of the Ombudsman Act No.27 of 1998
- 5.4 The Ombudsman has also not received any feedback or comment from the Clerk of Parliament in relation to the findings.
- 5.5 Mr Robert A Jimmy's name did not appear in the Official Gazette but responded to the working paper on 7 May 2009 as he was Acting Director of the Fisheries Department from July 2007. To date he is still acting on the same position. However, his predecessor Mr Moses John Amos, who was the Director then, did not provide any reason for the non-submission of 2007 annual return.

6. FINDINGS

- 6.1 Finding 1: BREACH OF SECTION 33 OF THE LEADERSHIP CODE ACT BY 188 LEADERS TO FILE 2007 ANNUAL RETURN
- 6.1.1 Upon carrying an investigation into the number of leaders as listed by the Clerk of Parliament and published in the Official Gazette No.33 dated 16 June 2008 as having failed to file their 2007 annual return [Refer to APPENDIX D], the Ombudsman finds that 188 leaders have breached section 33 of the Leadership Code Act No.2 of 1998.
- 6.2 Finding 2: BREACH OF SECTION 49 OF THE OMBUDSMAN ACT NO.27 OF 1998 BY 157 LEADERS FOR FAILING TO ANSWER THE OMBUDSMAN'S QUERIES

- 6.2.1 Out of one hundred eighty eight (188) leaders coming under section 5 of the Leadership Code Act No.2 of 1998 there were only 32 persons who were willing to respond to the Ombudsman's notice being issued to each of them together with a working paper on 27 April 2009. As such, there were one hundred fifty six (156 = 188 - 32) of those leaders who miserably failed to answer the Ombudsman's queries as well as commenting on the content of the confidential report (working paper). In so doing, those 156 leaders have breached section 49 of the Ombudsman Act by refusing to answer questions relevant to the 2007 annual return as enquired into by the Ombudsman.

6.3 Finding 3: BREACH OF SECTION 32(3) OF THE LEADERSHIP CODE ACT [AMENDMENT] NO.7 OF 1999 BY THE CLERK OF PARLIAMENT

- 6.3.1 Section 32(3) of the Leadership Code [Amendment] No.7 of 1999 provides that "The Clerk must publish in the Gazette on or before 14 March in each year a list of the leaders who have given or failed to give the Clerk an annual return. The list must set out the leader's name and the position the leader holds".

The Clerk of Parliament only published these names in the Official Gazette No.33 on 16 June 2008, which was well over the required date as stated in the above Act. As such, the Clerk of Parliament has breached section 32(3) of the Leadership Code Act [Amendment] No.7 of 1999.

6.4 Finding 4: BREACH OF SECTION 33 OF THE LEADERSHIP CODE ACT BY THE CLERK OF PARLIAMENT

- 6.4.1 Pursuant to section 33(a) of the Leadership Code Act, the Clerk of Parliament is required to warn the leaders in writing of their failures to file their annual returns as provided under section 31 of the same Act. However, in his letter dated 11 September 2008 the Clerk of Parliament said in response to the Ombudsman letter dated 7 July 2008 (APPENDIX E) that "we did not give any warning to those leaders who failed to file their 2007 Annual Returns, but only sent them reminders to that effect" (APPENDIX F). Thus, no copy of the warning letter, a list of the leaders to whom the warning letters were sent and a list of those who responded to the reminder letters were provided to the Ombudsman.
- 6.4.2 Despite the imposition of such a duty, Mr Lino Bulekuli dit Sacsac has miserably failed to observe that obligation. As such, the Clerk of Parliament has breached section 33(a) of the Leadership Code Act.

6.5 Finding 5: BREACH OF SECTION 13(C) OF THE LEADERSHIP CODE ACT BY THE CLERK OF PARLIAMENT

- 6.5.1 As a leader pursuant to section 5(p) of the Leadership Code Act, the Clerk of Parliament is expected to comply with and observe the duties, obligations and responsibilities as established by this Act or any other enactment that affects his area of duty. A failure to comply with section 13(c) of the Leadership Code Act is also conducive to the breach of section 19 of the same Act. It provides that "A person who does not comply with Part 2, 3, or 4 is guilty of a breach of this Code and is liable to punishment in accordance with Part 6".

6.6 Finding 6: DEFICIENCY IN THE LEADERSHIP CODE ACT NO.2 OF 1998

- 6.6.1 Although a leader is obliged to submit his/her annual return form to the Clerk of Parliament setting out the details of the leader's assets and liabilities pursuant to Section 31 of the Act, the latter is not mandated to check the accuracy and reliability of the information. The Clerk is not only obliged, under Section 32, to ensure that the leader fills and submits the form but also to produce a list of the leaders who fail to file their forms as well as warning each of them in writing for failing to file his/her forms. There is no legal provision in the Act giving the Clerk of Parliament the power to carry out his own checks to confirm the reliability and accuracy of the details submitted by the leader. Because of this deficiency, the Ombudsman is unable to certify that the details in the forms are reliable to ascertain that the information provided by individual leaders is true and correct.

7. RECOMMENDATIONS

The Ombudsman makes the following recommendations in regards to the above findings.

7.1 Recommendation 1:

- 7.1.1 Pursuant to Sections 34(2), 35, 37 and 38 of the Leadership Code Act No.2 of 1998, the Public Prosecutor is obliged to consider this report and instigates, on the basis of sufficient attached evidence, legal proceedings against the 188 leaders whom the Ombudsman found to have breached the Leadership Code Act in not filling and submitting their 2007 Annual Returns to the Clerk of Parliament before 1 March 2008.

7.2 Recommendation 2:

- 7.2.1 The Government through Parliament seriously considers amending the Leadership Code Act, particularly sections 32 and 33 to have the Ombudsman the sole power and authority to scrutinize and keep an alphabetical register of leaders who have filed and those who have failed to file their annual returns so as to avoid continuous breaching of sections 32(3) and 33(a) of the Act by the Clerk of Parliament. In so doing, the Ombudsman will be in a position to independently assess the correctness and reliability of the submitted records. Unless this is done the submissions of Annual Return forms serve no purpose and are no use to anyone.

7.3 Recommendation 3:

- 7.3.1 The Clerk of Parliament is to seriously consider his responsibilities and obligations under the Leadership Code Act in the future until such time when Part 4 of the Leadership Code Act be amended so that the provisions on Annual Returns is solely administered by the Ombudsman Office.

7.4 Recommendation 4:

- 7.4.1 Despite the imposition of duties under the Leadership Code Act as described in the above findings, Mr Lino Bulekuli dit Sacsac has miserably failed to observe those obligations. As such, the Clerk of Parliament should be prosecuted for breaching sections 32(3) and 33(a) of the Leadership Code Act.

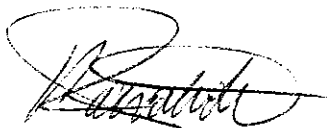

7.5 Recommendation 5:

- 7.5.1 As part of their administrative role, Government authorities who are legally empowered to both appoint and terminate persons from leadership positions must include the duty to inform the Clerk of Parliament and/or the Ombudsman in writing immediately after every appointment or termination of any leader so the Clerk of Parliament and/or the Ombudsman can keep an update of who the leaders are.

7.6 Recommendation 6:

- 7.6.1 Since many leaders are constantly failing to fill and submit their annual returns, it is recommended that the Parliament Secretariat, the Clerks of Municipal authorities and Secretary Generals of the Provincial authorities maintain copies of the form in their filing registry. Annual Return forms could be distributed during their full council and parliamentary meetings before the end of each year to be filled and submitted to the Clerk of Parliament and/or Ombudsman. In so doing, this could also allow other leaders an opportunity to have access to copies of the forms for submission to the Clerk of Parliament and/or Ombudsman. Thus, it will not be an excuse for them to say that annual returns could not be submitted due to the lack of forms.

- [a] any liabilities in respect of the family home; or
 - [b] the personal effects of the leader and his or her spouse and children.

LEADERSHIP CODE (AMENDMENT) ACT NO.7 1999

REPEAL OF SECTION 32 AND SUBSTITUTION OF NEW SECTION

1. Section 32 of the Principal Act is repealed and the following section substituted:

"ANNUAL RETURNS CONFIDENTIAL EXCEPT FOR INVESTIGATIONS AND PROSECUTIONS

32.
 - [1] Subject to subsection (2), the Clerk must keep confidential all annual returns given to the Clerk by leaders.
 - [2] The Clerk must not make a part of an annual return, or the whole of an annual return, available to another person unless the Clerk is satisfied that the part or annual return is necessary for:
 - [a] an investigation under Part 5 of this Act, or an investigation authorised by or under any other Act or law; or
 - [b] a prosecution under Part 5 of this Act, or a prosecution authorised by or under any other Act or law.
 - [3] The Clerk must publish in the Gazette on or before 14 March in each year a list of the leaders who have given or failed to give the Clerk an annual return. The list must set out the leader's name and the position the leader holds.
 - [4] This section applies to an annual return required to be given to the Clerk on or after the day on which this section commences."

COMMENCEMENT

1. This Act commences on the day on which it is published in the Gazette.

FAILURE TO FILE ANNUAL RETURN

33. A leader who:
 - [a] does not file an annual return as required by section 31, and after having been warned by the Clerk in writing of his failure to do so, fails to file the return within a further 14 days; or
 - [b] files a return knowing that it is false in a material particular;is guilty of a breach of this Code.

FAILURE TO APPEAR ETC.

49. A person who has been given a notice under section 22 to attend as a witness or to produce documents before the Ombudsman is guilty of an offence if the person without sufficient excuse:
 - [a] refuses or neglects to do so; or
 - [b] refuses to be sworn or refuses to answer any questions relevant to the matters being enquired into or put to him or her by the Ombudsman or an officer acting under a delegation made under section 14.

Penalty: VT100,000 or imprisonment for 6 months or both.

Dear Ombudsman,

This is to inform you that upon checking the information regarding the submission and non-submission of Annual Returns, Officer Bakokoto from the State Law Office informed me this morning (28/03/2008 @10:00) that she has not yet received the list of leaders who filed and those who failed to file their 2007 Annual Returns to be gazetted. She said that perhaps it is too early.

As I could not speak to the Clerk of Parliament (he was out of Office), I left a message with Mr Leon for the Clerk of Parliament to return my call in order to confirm whether or not the list of leaders, who filed or failed to file their 2007 Annual Returns, has been submitted to the State Law Office for gazetting .

We need to follow up on the matter in order to compile the report as soon as possible.

LEADERSHIP CODE ACT, CHAPTER 240

Dear Sir,

2007 ANNUAL RETURNS

In our letter dated 7 July 2008 (copy enclosed), we asked you for particular information and/or documents in connection with our enquiry into this matter. Our records show that we have not yet received your response to that request.

Please respond to our request before 17 September 2008. In the event that you do not produce the required documents and information in response to this letter, we will issue a Notice under the Ombudsman Act compelling you to come to the Office to give evidence and produce the documents and information. However, we prefer to work co-operatively wherever possible.

Confidentiality is important and is protected by section 28 of the Ombudsman Act. Breaching confidentiality constitutes an offence. This letter is directed only to yourself and anyone in your office with whom it is necessary to communicate in order to provide the information and documents required.

Yours sincerely

7 July 2008

Mr Lino Bulekuli dit SACSAC
Clerk of Parliament
PMB 9052
Port Vila
Vanuatu

Dear Sir,

2007 ANNUAL RETURNS

We refer to the above matter.

We have received confirmation from the State Law Office as of 28 March 2008 that they have not received any report on the 2007 Annual Returns as yet in order to be gazetted. From then onwards, we have continued to check whether or not the State Law Office has received it up until 19 June 2008 when we came in possession of a copy of the Official Gazette No.21 of 16 June 2008.

This Office intends to commence an enquiry into this matter in accordance with the provisions of the Leadership Code Act. Section 31(2) of the Leadership Code Act states that all "annual returns must be given to the Clerk of Parliament: (a) within 2 months of becoming a leader; and (b) by 1 March in each year". Section 32(3) of the Leadership Code Act further stipulates that the Clerk of Parliament must published in the Gazette on or before 14 March in each year a list of the leaders who have given or failed to give the Clerk an annual return. The list must set out the leader's name and the position the leader holds.

As such, it is understandable that your Office had gone beyond 14 March 2008 as the date to gazette the names of leaders who failed to file their annual returns for 2007.

In order to assist this Office with this enquiry, we would appreciate it if you could provide the following information and documents to our Office before 18 July 2008:

1. As some leaders failed to file their annual returns, did you give a warning in writing as required by section 33(a) of the Code?
2. If yes, please provide us with a:
 - [i] Copy of the warning;

- [ii] List of the leaders to whom the warning was sent; and
 - [iii] List of the leaders who responded to the warning.
3. Acknowledging the fact that "The Clerk must ensure that (a) annual returns filed by the leaders; and (b) a list of leaders who have failed to give the Clerk an annual return, are published in the Gazette, by 14 March in each year", what are the reasons for which you could not possibly comply with section 32(3) of the Leadership Code Act?
4. Any documents you consider relevant to this matter.

Please note that any person who does not respond to the Ombudsman's queries is likely to receive a Notice compelling him or her to come to the Office to give evidence and to provide the required information and documents, however, we prefer to work co-operatively whenever possible.

Warning: Inquiries by the Ombudsman are confidential until a public report is made. The Act says that you cannot discuss this investigation, this letter, or any other information that comes from the Office of the Ombudsman, except with your lawyer or as required by law. The penalty for breaking this law is 6 months in jail or a fine of Vt 100,000 or both.

We thank you in advance for your assistance in this matter.

Yours sincerely

Dear Sir,

2007 ANNUAL RETURNS

We acknowledge receipt of letters of 7 July and 8 September 2008 concerning the above and respond to the same as follows:

1. No we did not give any warning to those leaders who failed to file their 2007 Annual Returns, but only sent them reminders to that effect.
2. There is no other document relevant to the above that we could provide your office with.

Yours Sincerely,

Lino Batekuli SAC/SAC

ALLEGED FAILURE TO FILE 2007 ANNUAL RETURN

1. Ombudsman Officer:

- 1.1 We really appreciate your presence in this Office or wherever you may be and comments as a result of an alleged failure to file your 2007 Annual Return. As a leader pursuant to section 5 of the Leadership Code Act No.2 of 1998, are you aware of your duty under section 31(1)(2) of the same Act stipulating "(1) Every leader must complete an annual return for the preceding year setting out details of the leader's assets and liabilities in accordance with the form in the Schedule. (2) The annual return must be given to the clerk of Parliament: (a) within 2 months of becoming a leader; and (b) by 1 March in each year".

- 1.2 Leader's answer: YES or NO (tick or circle your answer accordingly)

2. Ombudsman Officer:

- 2.1 Would you explain to the Ombudsman the reason(s) for which you did not file your 2007 Annual Return as required by section 31(1)(2) of the Leadership Code Act?

- 2.2 Leader's answer (The leader can refer to his/her formal answer as submitted to the Ombudsman but will have to indicate the reason(s) in bullet points, if necessary):

3. Ombudsman Officer:

- 3.1 If you have submitted your 2007 Annual Return, would you submit a copy of your form to the Ombudsman to warrant your submission? How would you explain the fact that it did not reach the Clerk of Parliament on the due date?

3.2 Leader's answer (Tick or circle your answer accordingly)

☐ Submission or Non-submission

(If your answer is submission, then explain why it did not reach Parliament in the provided space below).

.....

.....

(If you did not make any submission, provide your explanations or reasons in 2.2 above).

4. Ombudsman Officer (If the next question applies to you, do respond to it accordingly, if it does not apply to you then sign your statement at the bottom of the page)

- 4.1 In the Official Gazettes No.21 dated 9/07/2007, it is reported that you are one of the 185 leaders who failed to fill and submit your annual return in 2006. Upon carrying out a thorough investigation into the matter, the Ombudsman has also found that you miserably failed to submit your 2006 annual return. This time around in the Official Gazette No.33 dated 16/06/2008 you still failed to file your 2007 annual return. As a leader, would you accept responsibility for such negligence in the event of prosecutorial proceedings before any court of law?

4.2 Leader's answer (Please tick or circle your response accordingly):

1. Affirmative then sign your statement OR
2. Negative, then if you are prepared to only discuss the relevant issue before any court of law, we do request that you still sign your statement.

I have read this statement. It is true to the best of my knowledge and belief, and is made by me knowing that I am liable to be prosecuted if I wilfully give information that I know to be false or do not believe to be true. I have been able to correct, add, or alter anything I want.

27 April 2009

Dear Sir,

WORKING PAPER ON THE FAILURE OF 192 LEADERS TO FILE 2007
ANNUAL RETURN

We enclose a copy of a Working Paper that outlines the facts, relevant laws and our preliminary findings and recommendations on the above inquiry.

We would be pleased to receive your comments on this Working Paper, either in writing or orally, along with any documentation you may have in support of your comments, to correct the allegation(s) or resolve the matter at this stage.

We would like to inform you that whether your comments are done orally at the Ombudsman Office or in writing, we are kindly requesting your attendance at the Ombudsman Office, Top Floor of Pilioko House in case you are visiting or residing in Port Vila in order to submit your statements (Statement form and Police Statement of Witness form) together with your letter to the Ombudsman.

In the letter you are kindly asked to provide your comments on the content of the report as well as explaining the reason(s) for which you did not submit your 2007 annual return. You should also indicate both in your letter and statement of interview that in the event of any further investigation by the Police, if necessary or required, you would only submit the same responses as already been submitted to the Office of the Ombudsman. Furthermore, you are also submitting a Police statement of witness form in which you would make reference to the said documents and would sign it (Police Statement of Witness form) prior to making submission of the three documents to the Ombudsman through mail or hand delivered.

A failure to submit the required documents before 22nd May 2009 (letter, Statement form and Police Statement of Witness form) would only be conducive to the issuance of Summons under the Ombudsman Act compelling you to make yourself available at the Ombudsman Office for an interview. And in case of your unavailability at the date and time being indicated on the Summons due to other commitments, we would appreciate that you contact this Office for a rescheduling of your attendance.

We would like to take this opportunity to remind you that under the Ombudsman Act, inquiries by the Ombudsman are confidential until a public report is made. You are legally obliged to comply with this confidentiality requirement. This means that you are not permitted to discuss this investigation, this letter, or any other information that comes from the Office of the Ombudsman, except with your lawyer or anyone with whom it is necessary to communicate in order to provide the information and documents requested. There are penalties for breaking this law.

We thank you in advance for your cooperation and assistance in this matter.

Yours sincerely
