

Õiguskantsler
Chancellor of Justice

International Ombudsman Institute
Institut International de l'Ombudsman
Instituto Internacional del Ombudsman

Workshop "Human Rights in the Digital Age"

23-24 January 2018, Kultuurikatel, Tallinn

PROGRAMME

Tuesday, 23 January 2018

08:30-09:00 Registration of participants

Moderator: Mr. Hans Lõugas, Editor-in-chief of Genius portal

09:00-10:30 Opening remarks

Mr. Peter Tyndall, IOI President and Ombudsman of Ireland

Ms. Ülle Madise, Member of the IOI Board and Chancellor of Justice of Estonia

Brief History of the Internet and how Digital Technologies are reshaping the societies around the world.

Mr. Linnar Viik, IT expert and visionary

Impact of digital development on the human rights and freedoms.

Ms. Katrin Nyman-Metcalf, Professor at the Department of Law of the Tallinn University of Technology

10:30-11:00 Coffee break

11:00-12:30 Dilemmas of digital age: national security versus privacy. What has changed in data collection?

Mr. Martin Arpo, Deputy Director General of the Estonian Internal Security Service

Secret surveillance activities and Ombudsmen's supervisory experiences.

Mr. Petri Jääskeläinen, Ombudsman of Finland

Mr. Robert Sepi, Deputy Ombudsman of Serbia

| | |
|-------------|--|
| 12:30-13:30 | Group photo and lunch |
| 13:30-15:00 | Citizen role in cyber security. What are the options for a person to hide his Internet history? Who is responsible for when it comes to privacy? Mr. Oskar Gross, Head of the Cyber Crimes Bureau at the Police and Border Guard Board What are the concerns that can be addressed to web-constables? Web-constable gives the insight how to train children as well as adults at issues of internet security. Ms. Maarja Punak, web-constable |
| 15:00-15:30 | Coffee break |
| 15:30-17:00 | Freedom of expression vs. hate speech. Ms. Vedrana Perišin, Adviser to the Ombudsman of Croatia Human rights based fair balance approach on Digital Age. Self-evident or a needle in a haystack? Ms. Karmen Turk, Partner and attorney-at-law at TRINITI Estonia What happens on the Internet stays on the Internet. What if Internet is used to compromise or defame a person? Mr. Rein Lang, Head of political and legal consultation at Nortal Ltd |

Wednesday, 24 January 2018

Moderator: Mr. Hans Lõugas, Editor-in-chief of Genius portal

09:00-10:30 Future of health. Why we need networked devices filled with delicate data? Technologies and digital data improve the quality of health care. However, safety of the delicate information is a challenge and technology-centered health care raises a number of ethical and regulatory issues.

Mr. Madis Tiik, Medical Doctor

Mr. Ants Nõmper, Managing Partner at Ellex Raidla law firm

| | |
|-------------|---|
| 10:30-11:00 | Coffee break |
| 11:00-12:30 | Sensors, data, decisions. The next generation of public digital services. Mr. Kristjan Vassil, Vice-Rector for Research at the University of Tartu Public sector transparency and risks to privacy in the digital age. Government information sharing and identity management. Protection of personal data vs freedom of information. Mr. Viljar Peep, Director General of the Data Protection Inspectorate |
| 12:30-13:30 | Lunch |
| 13:30-15:00 | Digital data and good governance. What is Ombudsman's role to guarantee everyone's rights in information society? How to implement interdisciplinary approach to protect citizens' rights in digital society? Ms. Epp Maaten, Senior Adviser to the Chancellor of Justice of Estonia Mr. Reinier van Zutphen, Member of the IOI Europe Board and Ombudsman of the Netherlands Mr. Graham Smith, Senior Advisor on access to documents at the Cabinet of the European Ombudsman |
| 15:00-15:30 | Conclusions and closing remarks Mr. Louis Zezeran, Stand-up comedian Ms. Ülle Madise, Member of the IOI Board and Chancellor of Justice of Estonia |