

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING between the

African Ombudsman and Mediators Association

and the

International Ombudsman Institute

The African Ombudsman and Mediators Association, hereafter called AOMA, and the International Ombudsman Institute, hereafter called IOI,

Guided by the will to establish between them a mutually advantageous and cooperative relationship, with a view to sharing best practices in the field of control of public administration and protection and promotion of human rights,

Recognizing that they share similar objectives to strengthen the concept of ombudsmanship, and encouraging existing and new ombudsman institutions in their work of assisting, enhancing and protecting civil and human rights,

Have agreed on the following:

Article 1

Cooperation

In order to facilitate the achievement of the objectives set out in the basic legal texts pertaining to each organization and within the limits of their competence set up by their respective regulations, AOMA and IOI agree to cooperate and bring each other mutual support in the field of protection and promotion of human rights and the strengthening of the concept of the ombudsman.

AOMA and IOI agree that specific links of friendship, cooperation and exchange of experience and best practice will be established and a program of cooperation in sectors of mutual interest will be shared.

This cooperation may take several forms, including mutual participation in conferences and meetings, organization of study visits and training workshop as well as the general exchange of information and expertise.

Article 2

Participation in conferences and meeting

AOMA and IOI shall invite each other to participate in conferences, workshops and trainings that they organise in the field of ombudsmanship and/or human rights.

AOMA and IOI agree that the participation of both parties in all activities deemed beneficial to their respective progress, and consistent with each organization's founding principles, shall be mutually encouraged. Representatives from each organisation shall be mutually invited to attend congresses and conferences by its counterpart or any international or regional organizations and associations whose activities are consistent with the objectives and common references set out by this agreement.

Article 3

Study visits and training workshops

AOMA and IOI may organise study visits, training workshops and other actions aimed at exchanging professional experience and improving the mutual training of their staff.

Participation of members from AOMA and IOI at training workshops organized by its counterpart shall be encouraged whenever the project budget allows for it.

Article 4

Exchange of information

AOMA and IOI may exchange information on their important decisions and activities in the fields of mutual interest defined by this agreement and in compliance with their respective regulations. In doing so, exchange of information and contact between members of AOMA and IOI shall be encouraged and promoted by each institution.

AOMA and IOI may share legislation, legal documents, background documents or issue papers.

AOMA and IOI agree to assist each other to the greatest extent possible, in providing consultation to consolidate the role of each institution in promoting and protecting human rights and ombudsman ship throughout the world.

Article 5

Terms and conditions

The terms and conditions of the organization of specific activities will be decided upon by the parties in each case. In order to put this agreement into effect, AOMA and IOI commit themselves to keeping up regular contacts and engaging in mutual consultations.

Article 6

Entry into force, amendment, denunciation

This agreement shall enter into force on the date it is signed by both parties. It shall remain valid for five years and will be extended automatically for the same length of time if none of the parties gives written notice to the other of its desire to put an end to the agreement at least three months before the expiry.

Amendments and complements to this agreement may be proposed at the initiative of one of the parties. The amendments shall enter into force when they have been approved by both parties.

This agreement may be denounced by one of the parties by giving written notice to the other. The agreement shall be terminated three months from the date of such notice.

This agreement was signed in Vienna, Austria, on the 16th of April 2013. In five versions to wit; English, German, French Spanish, Portuguese and Arabic. The English version shall be considered as the original.
